MEMORY VERSE

You are snared by the words of
 your mouth;
 You are taken by the words of your mouth
 -Proverbs 6:2 (NKJV)

CONFESSION WORKS

If you have been following the confession series, I am quite sure that by now, you will agree with me that confession does work indeed. Now, what do your confessions do for you?

Your confession defines your position. What you say is an indicator of what you believe. The statements from your mouth will always expose or reveal you. You can be pretentious with many other things, but honestly, there is something about what you say that shows the real you.

When you speak, your belief speaks. If you read Mark 5: 25-34 - and properly, this time around - you would see, maybe for the first time, that it was not Jesus' power that made the woman whole, it was her faith. Jesus told her in verse 34 "...Daughter, your faith has healed you...". Her faith was the means for her healing, not Jesus' power. If it was Jesus' power that healed her, everyone thronging on Jesus would have had a miracle that day. What she believed before touching Jesus was the difference. See, there is little to nothing that God will do without your faith; and this is expressed in confessions.

See how this woman fueled her faith: It is clear from verse 28(AMPC) of Mark 5 "...For she kept saying, If I only touch His garments, I shall be restored to health". She kept saying means she was consistent in her saying and her confession; this birthed her faith and she experienced a change (We talked about this last week).

To maintain the right position in life, you must make the right confessions. Even when things are not looking like they ought to be, speak the right words. Your condition may be anything but that thing is not your portion. Your portion is God and His Word. Take your portion in the word of God and impose it over your condition, through your confession.

Your confession predicts your outcome. This means that to know what your future holds, one just needs to hear you speak.

Dear reader, in good times and bad times, stay consistent in your confessions; Irrespective of the number of people who say the wrong things, stay on your right to confess rightly. You alone can determine what you want to see in your future and you determine it from what you say now.

Proverbs 12:18 - What you say determines the state of your well-being Proverbs 16:24 - Speak the right words regardless of your situation.

Proverbs 21:23 - Make the right confessions and stay out of trouble. Right confessions birth right realities

MATTHEW 5:14

I am the Light of the World;
An extension of Heaven here on earth.
I am equipped with God's Word and His Spirit.

I shine bright,
Bringing out the God-colours in every space.
I cannot be hidden.

I emit God's glory,
I display God's splendour,
And people everywhere see it

My light shines brightly before men.
I produce good works in every space.
In response to the effect of my light,
Men give glory to my Father.

I boldly declare,
That My life brings honour and Glory
to my Heavenly Father
this day and forever,
Amen
Hallelujah

BUSINESS CORNER: HOW TO GROW YOUR SMALL BUSINESS

- 1. Understand Your Customers: You can only develop products and services that will be a huge hit if you are attentive to the needs of your customers and prospects
- 2. Improve Your Customer Service: If you do not provide quality customer service, it will be difficult to satisfy your customers even if you have a superior product or service. This aspect of the business is about taking the extra step to make them feel special.
- 3. Establish Loyalty: it takes time to encourage customers to come and buy what you have to offer. However, it is not enough to get them to buy; you also need to encourage loyalty. You need them to be loyal to you considering that there are other competitors who could probably offer them better.
- 4. Maximize Social Media: social media reaches out to hundreds and thousands of people at once. Make sure your business is well engaged on social media. This helps you stay relevant. Listening to people and reading their comments will give you an idea of how to make them feel more satisfied. It will also help you understand their behaviour and meet their demands.
- 5. Spend Time Attending Networking Events: If given the chance to join these kinds of events, please take it. It is usually an opportunity to extend your network. This is highly important but at the same time, usually neglected by many up and coming entrepreneurs. Building relationships with other people is a must as it is a great way to come across people who can help you build your business. At events like these, you can find employees, customers and even investors

MEDITATION

Your condition is not your portion!

Psalm 16:5-6 (TPT)

Yahweh, you alone are my inheritance. You are my prize, my pleasure, and my portion. You hold my destiny and its timing in your hands.

Your condition may be anything you are going through at the moment, but that is not your portion. Your Portion is God and His Word. Take your portion in the Word of God, declare it over your condition and see the results
