

The Kingdom International School of Life and Ministry welcomes you into the Season of Infinity.

This Season has been designed by God to take you to heights that you have yet to experience and depths that you have never been.

We are the Spiritual training arm of The Ecclesia Embassy with a mission to equip men and women through our various training programs, with the requisite knowledge for an effective walk in life and ministry.

KISOLAM exists primarily to train everyone who intends to be an effective tool in the hands of God.

Ponder on this statement before you continue this reading:

"Training is the gap between the 'present you' and the more effective, impactful and matured you"

Anyone destined to matter in the grand scheme of things understands that no opportunity to learn should ever be belittled. At KISOLAM, we are dedicated to enriching your bank of knowledge with insights that truly matter for the challenges ahead. Our drive is to equip you with depths that will empower you to shine brightly in places that count this season. Embrace this chance to learn, and see how it transforms your journey!
